

The Matthew Mack Award

For distinguished achievements in education, training and innovation within the fruit growing industry.

Presented Triennially at the Banquet

(Founded 1991)

2021	Dr Rex Brennan	After a lifetime working at the James Hutton Institute in Scotland, Dr Brennan developed expertise in the integration of berry fruit genetics with commercially-funded fruit breeding programmes, especially in Ribes (blackcurrants and gooseberries).	Due to the Coronavirus Pandemic the Award was presented at a Virtual Online Banquet Wednesday 17 th March 2021
2018	Tim Biddlecombe		Mansion House Thursday 22 nd February 2018
2015	John Thatcher		Mansion House Monday 16 th February 2015
2012	John Edgeley		Mansion House Monday 13 th February 2012
2009	Dianne Quested		Mansion House Thursday 12 th February 2009
2006	Malcolm Withnall		Barber Surgeons' Hall (Presented at the Audit Court Dinner) Thursday 18 th May 2006
2003	John Dartnell		Mercers' Hall (Presented at the Audit Court Dinner) Thursday 22 nd May 2003
2000	Don Findlay		Painted Hall, Old Royal Naval College Tuesday 25 th January 2000
1997	Rodger Worraker		Mansion House Thursday 13 th February 1997
1994	Linda Allen		Plasterers' Hall Thursday 27 th January 1994
1991	John Hewitt		